MONTANA REPERTORY THEATER RECEIVES
GRANT FROM MONTANA ARTS COUNCIL

MISSOULA--

The Montana Repertory Theater (MRT), based at the University of Montana in Missoula, was recently awarded an $11,000 grant by the Montana Arts Council (MAC), $5,000 for general support and $6,000 in the form of matching funds available to Montana communities. The matching funds allow 50% of the Montana Repertory Theater's guarantee to be paid by the MAC, an agency of the state government.

A workshop program, Theater-in-the-Schools, is available year round. The MRT is now arranging its major touring schedule for March 1975. "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by William Shakespeare, a children's version of the same show, and a series of workshops utilizing the 20 member MRT Company are available under the touring program.

For more information or to arrange bookings, contact Frank Jacobson, Managing Director, Montana Repertory Theater, University of Montana, Missoula, 59801 or phone 243-5572.
